What information we collect and how we use it

We collect some of your data:

- Usage Data
Usage Data is data collected automatically either generated by the use of the Service or from the Service infrastructure itself (for example, the duration of a page visit).
- Cookies
Cookies are small pieces of data stored on your device (computer or mobile device).
- Your email
When you would like to obtain materials shared on this site (i.e. "Action Cards"), we ask you for your email, which will be used to make these materials accessible.

We use the data to:

- To allow you to obtain materials from the website
- To gather analysis of site usage for the purpose of market research and optimization of the website content and alignment of the website content to the needs of visitors

Service Providers

We may employ third party companies and individuals to facilitate our Service and/or Products ("Service Providers"), to provide the Service and/or Products on our behalf, to perform Service- and/or Product- related services or to assist us in analyzing how our Service and/or Products are used.

These third parties have access to your Personal Data only to perform these tasks on our behalf and are obligated not to disclose or use it for any other purpose.

Mailchimp

The newsletter is dispatched by "MailChimp", a newsletter distribution platform of the US provider Rocket Science Group, LLC, 675 Ponce De Leon Ave NE #5000, Atlanta, GA 30308, USA

The email addresses of our newsletter recipients and their further details described in this information are stored on the MailChimp servers in the USA. MailChimp uses this information to send and evaluate the newsletters on our behalf. MailChimp can by its own admission also use this data to enhance or improve its own services, e.g. to technically enhance the dispatch procedure and display of the newsletter or for commercial purposes to be able to determine which countries the recipients are from. However, MailChimp will not use the data of our newsletter recipients to contact them itself or forward it to third parties.

We trust the reliability, IT security and data security of MailChimp. MailChimp is certified under the US-EU data privacy agreement "Privacy Shield" and agrees to comply with the EU data privacy guidelines. We have also concluded a "Data Processing Agreement" with MailChimp. This is an agreement in which MailChimp is obligated to protect the data of our users, to process it in accordance with its privacy policy on our behalf and must not forward this information to third parties. You can view the MailChimp privacy policy here.

Google Analytics

Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google LLC (USA) that tracks and reports website traffic. Google uses the data collected to track and monitor the use of our Service. You can opt-out of having made your activity on the Service available to Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on. The add-on prevents the Google Analytics JavaScript (ga.js, analytics.js, and dc.js) from sharing information with Google Analytics about visits activity.

For more information on the privacy practices of Google, please visit the Google Privacy & Terms web page: <http://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>

How to unsubscribe from the newsletter

Every newsletter contains a quick and easy unsubscribe link in its footer.

When you unsubscribe from a newsletter managed via Mailchimp, your details remain on the list of past recipients. This is a measure to prevent circumstances such as a member of staff accidentally manually re-adding you. Mailchimp states: "As a compliance measure, subscribers who unsubscribe themselves can't be deleted from your list."

However, provided you are still a subscriber at the point when you contact us, on request your details can be permanently removed from the list – please contact us at cards@invisiblewave.eu.
